Denial of Rumor of

Premier's Retirement

(Winnipeg, Jan. 12.)

Montreal, Jan. 12.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was at the Place Viger station this afternoon for a few minutes on the way to Quebec, and was met by a number of friends. When rumors of his retirement were shown to the premier, he smiled and said it was interesting to notice how anxious some people were to get him out of the way. However, as he felt much better now than six months ago, he was afraid they would be disappointed. When shown the Toronto World editorial which anticipated his retirement in about a month he laughed heartily and said he was good for one more parliament at least. Sir Wilfrid was looking extremely well and said that he found the traveling air of Canada was making him feel far better than the balmy climate of Florida.

A CRIME CONFESSED.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 12.—The police claim to be in possession of a confession from R. Harding, that he was one of five men who on the night of January 10th, 9 years ago, held up the Burlington fast train to Chicago at St. Joseph Hill, two miles east of this city, and blowing open a safe of the express car secured about $10,000. None of the perpetrators were ever captured. Harding is under arrest.

J. Hill will place the Edmonton district with a railroad which will tap the north country.

Moses Brundage, a son of Joseph Brundage, who formerly lived at Oakwood, and is well known in Grifton, returned recently to take over Oakwood's fairer daughter, but to Edmonton, N. W. He says that having lived several years at Edmonton he is determined to make that his home; that there is no farming and grazing land for six hundred miles to the north of Edmonton, and that the Peace River country is bound to be a busy, bustling place in a few years. To the north-west of Edmonton there is some fine farming and timber land. North of the city is a large tract of land. He has travelled north to Great Slave Lake and has just recently returned from the Klondike. He says he is 90 percent of the people who go to Alaska to turn with less money than they make here.

CHIEF JUSTICE SIFTON.

The report that Hon. A. L. Sifton, commissioner of public works, in the Northwest government, had accepted the chief justiceship of the Territories, which seemed for some time to be in doubt, has been confirmed. From a Northwest point of view there can be only one opinion as to this appointment. As a prominent Northwest, as an able lawyer, as a man of unquestioned integrity and acknowledged ability, the new chief justice is all that could be asked for by the most exacting critic.

Usually the attainment of a chief justiceship is considered as the climax of success in legal and public life. It can scarcely be considered so in this case, and it is doubtful if the new chief justice feels it in that way. As commissioner of public works in the Northwest government, the Hon. A. L. Sifton had a wider field for the exercise of his marked abilities than he can have even as chief justice of the Territories. He was a part of the living forces which are rapidly laying the foundations of a great country, to an extent that he cannot now be. While the position of chief justice is high and honorable, it is generally recognized as a little less as a career. To that extent his acceptance of the chief justiceship was a sacrifice rather than an achievement, and a loss rather than a gain to the people of the Territories.

Two objections have been made to the appointment of Mr. Sifton to the chief justiceship. One, that he is a brother of the minister of interior; and the other that he has been out over Judge Richardson, who is considered as being entitled to the position by seniority. The first objection is too petty to merit more than mere mention. A. L. Sifton's most adverse critic cannot deny that he is entirely eligible, and that his position in the Territories strictly entitled him to the refusal of the position. He does not owe either his personal qualities or the position which he has won or his seat at the hands of the people of the Territories in any degree to his more gifted brother. Then why should the people of the Territories be debarred from the advantage of his services in any position merely because he has a brother who has successfully fought his way in another and wider field.

As to his appointment, setting aside the claims of Judge Richardson, it need only be asked; since when and by whom has seniority been recognized as a rule for the appointment to the position of chief justice. To go no further, were the present chief justice of Manitoba and of British Columbia appointed because of their seniority on the bench? As a personal matter the Bulletin would have been very glad to see Judge Richardson's long and honorable service on the Northwest bench crowned by his appointment as chief justice. But we are living in a work-a-day world. And if there are high responsibilities and heavy duties attaching to the office of chief justice of the Territories, as there are, or should be, who is to say that the public interest is not consulted by having a younger and more vigorous man at the head of the supreme court. There is altogether too great a tendency among our people to consider public office as a private snap. Men-even judges-do not hold office by right divine. They are servants of the public because the public who pays them requires service to be rendered. And their rights are limited to a very much greater degree than many of them recognize, by the quality and quantity of their service.

The C. P. R. Buys German Engines Winnipeg Telegram.

A reporter for the Telegram having been informed that the C. P. R. was now sending to Europe for engines, questioned D. McNicoll, general manager for the road, on the matter yesterday.

Mr. McNicoll replied that the statement was quite true.

"We have," he said, "placed orders with firms in Glasgow, Scotland and in Germany."

"Some people," he added, "appear to be of the opinion that a railway company has only to place the order for engines to secure them right away, as they would hardware or other goods, but, as a matter of fact, you cannot buy an engine in the United States to-day, or this year, and we are advised that there will not be one available until 1904.

"The C. P. R. has done everything possible to secure the necessary rolling stock, and has spent a vast amount of money towards that end. They added 98 locomotives to their stock during the year just closed, and have orders placed for delivery in the spring before the next crop is due, for 116 additional locomotives of the largest and most approved type. These orders are placed in Canada, the United States, Scotland and Germany.

"Not only are we building cars at our own shops at Perth, Farnham and Hochelaga," Mr. McNicoll continued, "but we have firms engaged building for us at St. Paul, St. Louis, Chicago, Ont., and Amherst, N.S. Our Montreal shops are building engines at the rate of one a week. Passenger coaches are also under construction at Montreal, Amherst, N.S., Fullman, Ill., and Dayton, Ohio.

Questioned in regard to improvements in other directions, Mr. McNicoll said: "We are adding very largely to our telegraph facilities. An additional copper wire between Fort William and Swift Current will be completed this week. Others are to be constructed, including one between Calgary and Edmonton.

"The people of the Northwest can feel assured that the Canadian Pacific officials are doing everything in their power to make their facilities complete. We have large works at terminal and other points in contemplation for the coming summer."

Dissatisfaction Among the Constabulary
London, Jan. 8.—Some of the Constables of the South African Constabulary arrived in England, Tuesday, Dec. 23, and more are expected soon. It is alleged that others resigned because they resented being put in different sections and under other officers. There is some difficulty regarding their passage back to Canada, but most of the men expect to return to Canada on Saturday. Another authority confirms the statement that most of the men resigned on account of their dislike to the English officers. It is announced to-day that Baden-Powell will retire from the command of the South African Constabulary for a better post, though his future movements are not settled. The Cape papers are full of acrid comment on the general administration of the South African Constabulary.

The Great Northern in Canada

Lethbridge News, Jan. 7.
Another step forward in regard to railway transportation has been made this week, when the narrow gauge went out of business and Great Northern cars were brought into Lethbridge yards. This occurred for the first time on Saturday night about 7 o'clock, when one of the new engines returned from an initial trip to Virden with a string of empty box cars, some of which again went south loaded with "black diamonds" on the first regular train on Monday.

While this change will be welcomed by passengers on account of the better time that will now be made on this line, it is in regard to its effect on the mining industry here that the greatest interest is felt. That it will have a beneficial effect is certain, but the extent to which that effect will extend is not yet known. Galt mine coal has for years been a favorite fuel with people in Great Falls and other towns in Montana in consequence of its superior quality to any long mined in that State, and with the improved shipping facilities now possessed by the Coal Company in consequence of the change of gauge, it is confidently expected that this market will be considerably extended in the future, with the result that the dependence of the company upon the C. P. R. for cars in which to market its products will be greatly lessened. The advent of the Great Northern into Lethbridge with the new year is an auspicious augury for the future stability of our mining industry and the prosperity of our town.

The changes which have been made in the re-construction of this road are extensive and important, and represent a considerable expenditure of capital. Of the 202 miles comprised in the line, about 24 miles, north of Shelby Junction, is entirely new work, the route having been located further west to secure more favorable gradients, while all bridges have had to be reconstructed and strengthened, besides much earthwork. Several changes have been made in regard to stations and names.

Boers Now Petition

They Used to Dictate
Pretoria, Transvaal, Jan. 8.—An influential meeting of burghers yesterday drafted an address for presentation to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and the legislative council, embodying the views of the leaders.

Among the recommendations are general amnesty, the maintenance of the Transvaal war regulations, the importation of cattle by the Government, and the abolition of the South African Constabulary.

Generals Botha, De Wet and De la Rey strongly urge the necessity for a moderate attitude and organization to assist the present government.

Gen. Botha reported that $525,000 had been collected in America and Europe for the relief of destitute Boers.

Taxation of C. P. R. Lands

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—Mr. H. M. Howell, of Winnipeg, left today for Montreal to see the C. P. R. officials in regard to the case which he is engaged on in regard to the taxation of the land grant of the company. Mr. Howell is arranging the terms upon which the case will be tried. Of course, the suit will be taken on the taxation of land in a township of North Cypress, as already stated in the Free Press, beyond that the case will be heard in Winnipeg. Mr. Howell has nothing to say. He will return here in a few days.

Boys' Clothing

That Interests Parents.

Every parent knows just how hard his boy is on clothes and we add that few fathers or mothers in reality care if their boys are a little rough in their play and clothes don't wear quite so long as they may have at first expected, for no right minded person likes an effeminate boy, for it is the sturdy, rough and ready little fellows who develop into the most useful class of Canadian citizenship. Our caution—don't pay too much for boys' clothes, but get them good clothes at a fair price from a reputable firm which does not hesitate to replace with a new suit any which does not wear well. Now that the school season has opened again, the boy may need a new suit, nor can you make more advantageous investment than by the saving you make for these necessities at

STRATHONA

Mainden, Jan. 9.

The are lights on the Strathona skating rink have proved unsatisfactory for hockey and have been replaced by incandescent lamps.

Mrs. Short died at Beaumont on Friday last together with her new born twin babies.

Miss Nettie, Jones, for some time an assistant in the Strathona post office, has secured a position in the post office at Innisfail. She is succeeded in the Strathona post office by Miss Esther McPhadden, of Ellerslie.

The town electric light plant has now about 650 lights on and orders for a large number more. The system was begun two years ago with about 250 lights.

This week J. G. Tipton & Sons are opening a branch of their estate and insurance business in Leduc. Mr. W. J. Tipton will take charge of the new branch, and Messrs. J. G. Tipton and son Thompson will continue to conduct business at the head office in Strathona.

Mr. Rutherford received last week an official statement of the population of Strathona as shown by the post census. According to it the population numbered 1932 souls rather than 1550 as publicly reported some time ago. Strathona has made rapid strides of growth since that census. The C. & E. engineers are now at work making surveys with a view to securing a crossing of the Saskatchewan. Several trial lines have been run. One line laid out during the past week leaves the constructed line just north of W. M. Hill's house, curving to the west bank on Saskatchewan Ave., crosses the grade to Walter's mill close to Joseph McDonald's house. It makes a very gradual descent to the flat opposite Miner's flat and there effects a crossing.

LESTERIDGE

News, Jan. 7.

The police were ploughing their garden Tuesday, Jan. 6th.

Up to date 19 cars of machinery for the Raymond sugar factory have arrived and no notification has been received of 17 more.

A new time table went into effect on the A. R. & C. Co's railway on Sunday. As stated last week trains leave on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays the time of departure being 9 p.m. Trains from Great Falls arrive at 10:25 p.m. the following days. St. Mary's River railway trains leave at 8 a.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, returning same evenings at 4:55. One of the new standard gauge engines and car, with Manager Naumth and other gentlemen aboard, made a trip of inspection over the south road to Combs on New Year's day, and found everything in good shape for the heavier traffic which will now pass over it. The first standard gauge train pulled out on Monday evening. It consisted of engine, combination passenger car, five cars coal and cattle.

Canadian Beef for the British Army

The department of agriculture, Ottawa, has received a cable from the Imperial war office stating that tenders were to be called for a year's supply of fresh beef for the army in South Africa. The war office desires that the tender should be secured by some one within the empire, and has asked the Canadian government to advise them of likely Canadian firms. The matter will be attended to by the trade and commerce department.

Plague in Mexico

Jan. 8.—Thirteen deaths, all certified officially to have been due to the plague, took place yesterday and five persons are in the lazaretto and five persons are in the observation station.
